

General Thoracic Surgical Club

November 1, 2017

Dear Colleagues:

The Thirty-First Annual Meeting of the General Thoracic Surgical Club will be held at The Ritz-Carlton, Dove Mountain, Marana, Arizona, March 8 – 11, 2018. Information regarding The Ritz-Carlton is enclosed and is also available on the General Thoracic Surgical Club web site. Please note 2017 DUES, AS WELL AS ANY PAST DUES, MUST BE CURRENT to attend the meeting.

The Registration form is enclosed. For your convenience the form is also available on the Club website in a fillable format. Once you complete the form be sure to save, print and email/mail to the Club offices with required payment. The General Thoracic Surgical Club is offering mens' and ladies' shirts in 2018. Be sure to note the size requested on page 2 of your registration form. For those of you who may plan to arrive prior to the meeting, The Ritz-Carlton is completely sold out on March 4 and 5 with very limited availability on March 6. For those attendees traveling with family, larger rooms are available. Be sure to contact our office as soon as possible as these are very limited.

The Scientific Program will be posted to the Club website soon. The Robert J. Ginsberg Clinical Trials opens the program on Thursday morning, March 8 at 8 a.m. The Welcome Reception is Thursday evening. Friday evening will be the GTSC Movie Night with the L. Penfield Faber Super Bowl of X-rays on Saturday evening. Instructions for submitting movies and abstracts are available on the Club web site (www.gtsc.org). Scholarship information is enclosed in this mailing and also available on the Club website.

The annual GTSC golf tournament is scheduled for Friday afternoon. Be sure to note on your registration form if you plan to participate and sign up at the GTSC Registration Desk upon arrival at The Ritz-Carlton. Be sure to also sign up for the Fun Run held Saturday morning and the tennis tournament Saturday afternoon.

We hope you have had an enjoyable summer and look forward to seeing you at The Ritz!
